SUBJECT: ANNUAL REPORT OF Wafa wa Amal

REF: CAIRO A-59

1. WHEN DISCUSSING Wafa wa Amal Project Oct 16 with Minister of Social Affairs Aisha Rateb, I took occasion to impress on her the importance of annual society report providing all information about progress of the project. I pointed out such reports are essential in justifying requests for US assistance and soliciting help from private foundations. She stated director of the society is supposed to present annual report to the board.

2. I indicated awareness of this fact and recalled my discussions of last year with former director Hosny and Min Housing and Reconstruction Osman on this matter. Hosny had ultimately prepared a report which, as a first such document, was helpful. However, it left much to be desired, and second one ought to be a more professional job. I suggested that if the society wished, Embassy would be pleased to provide some counsel on what should be included in such a report and how it might most effectively be presented. She expressed appreciation.

3. WE WILL FOLLOW UP AS APPROPRIATE. I WOULD LIKE TO SEE A SECOND ANNUAL REPORT COME OUT IN JANUARY OR FEBRUARY OF NEXT YEAR.
